

South Asia Program

Events Calendar

November, 2009

Monday, November 2 – Of Purity and Pollution: Watery Geographies of Development in the Bengal Delta, Farhana Sultana, Syracuse University, 12:15 p.m., G08 Uris Hall

Monday, November 2 – Role of Women in Afghanistan, Meena Yousufzai, Tompkins Cortland Community College, 6 p.m., G08 Uris Hall

Friday, November 6 – Film Screening: Amartya Sen: A Life Reexamined, presented by filmmaker Suman Ghosh, 12:00 p.m., Asian Studies Lounge, 3rd floor Rockefeller Hall, free and open, cosponsored with the Dept of Theatre, Film & Dance, Dept. of Economics and the Cornell Council for the Arts

Friday, November 6 – Film Screening: Dwando (The Conflict) presented by filmmaker Suman Ghosh, 7 p.m., Willard Straight Theatre, $6.50 general/$5 seniors/$4 students, cosponsors listed above

Wednesday, November 11 – Tibetan Longevity Practices: The Body in the Chimé Sogtik Tradition, Geoffrey Samuel, Cardiff University, 4:30pm, 153 Uris Hall

Friday, November 13 – I am Omar, a film screening presented by director Onir Anirban, 4:00 p.m. reception in Schwartz Ctr. lobby with filmmaker (free snacks), 4:30 p.m. screening Film Forum, Schwartz Center for the Arts, 430 College Ave. (Collegetown), cosponsored with LGBT Resource Ctr., HAVEN, MOSAIC, ALANA and ISSO, a reception will precede the film

Monday, November 16 - Collective Trauma, Historical Memories and the Refashioning of National Narratives: Responses of the Sri Lankan Tamil Diaspora to the Defeat of Liberation Tigers of Tamil Eelam, Mark Whitaker, University of South Carolina, 12:15 p.m., G08 Uris Hall

Tuesday, November 17 – Freshmen and Sophomores--International Funding and Training Opportunities Event, Learn about the IIPP Fellowship, one of the most prestigious fellowships in international Affairs available to all U.S. minority residents and citizens; 4:30 ILR Conference Center, Room 525. Pizza will be served.

Monday, November 23 - Non-Brahmin Political Thought and The Communist Manifesto: Reception and Projection, Matthew Baxter, Ph.D. Candidate, Department of Political Science, University of California at Berkeley, 12:15 p.m. G08 Uris Hall

All events are free and open to the public unless otherwise specified. These lectures are made possible through funding from the US Department of Education and the Cornell University South Asia Program